Dear Sirs

Your Request for Information

I am writing in response to your recent request that we received on 14 July 2020 in which you requested the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Information Requested

Information regarding the population of individuals with Smith-Magenis Syndrome, this is identified by a mutation or deletion of RAI1 gene on chromosome 17p11.2:

- Total population covered by the CCG - (available here: <https://digital.nhs.uk/data-and-information/publications/statistical/patients-registered-at-a-gp-practice>)
- The total number of people diagnosed with Smith-Magenis syndrome within this population
- Year of Birth
- Male / Female

Response

I can confirm the information you requested is not held by NHS Vale of York Clinical Commissioning Group. The Vale of York CCG does not have access to this level of detail.

The information we have provided to you is copyrighted to NHS Vale of York CCG and provided to you free of charge for your personal use or for other specific uses permitted in the Copyright Act. If however you wish to use the information we have provided for any commercial purposes including the sale of the information to a third party then, under the Regulations on the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005, you must ask us for permission to do so in respect of each specific piece of such information. If we do grant such permission this may involve a licensing arrangement which may attract a fee. Should you wish to apply for permission for commercial re-use under the Regulations you should write to the Freedom of Information Manager to the address above.

If you have any concerns about the way your request has been handled; the operation of the Publication Schemes, the response received, or the 'exemption' decision, you should, in the first instance, contact me to try to resolve them. If you are not happy with the outcome, you can write to our Accountable Officer at the address above, within 40 days from the date of our response, to make a request for an internal review.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of the internal review, you can then write to the Information Commissioner:
